Detail of Information
On 26.11.2014 at 1800hrs [redacted] stated to case manager and Farsi interpreter that [redacted] (Cultural Advisor for Wilson's Security) visited her today and when [redacted] stated that she felt sick and very bad [redacted] reported that this was in relation to her rape in camp [redacted] stated the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- "Why? Things that happen to you are as common as going to the bathroom or eating food"</li> <li>- "Rape in Australia is very common and people don't get punished"</li> <li>- "If that happened to you why didn't you scream at the time?"</li> <li>- "You have to take it out of your head if you go into Nauru then he [the perpetrator] could be your neighbour or if you go to [redacted] then he could be on the plane next to you. You also have to teach your son to treat this man nicely"</li> <li>- "There are no charges being bought against this man, this was something normal and very common"</li> </ul> [redacted] reported that following this conversation she felt very sick and wanted to hit her head, describing that it had been re-traumatising; [redacted] stated that she does not want [redacted] to come near her anymore. [redacted] also reported this incident to Wilson's Security staff member [redacted] who informed her to recount this incident to her case manager. [redacted] reported that since this conversation with [redacted] has upset her she has concerns that her [redacted] will now start to worry that another incident has occurred as [redacted] is upset and speaking with case manager. [redacted] reported being angry that [redacted] has started all of these problems for her. Case manager has no current concerns for [redacted] mental state. [redacted] has an OSSTT counselling appointment on Friday 28.11.14.
